

THE NEW YORK HERALD.

WHOLE NO. 7291.

MORNING EDITION—SATURDAY, AUGUST 16, 1856.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

ADVERTISEMENTS REMOVED EVERY DAY.

LITERATURE.

THE HEBREW'S CURSE
ANOTHER NEW STORY.
THE HEBREW'S CURSE
Will be announced
THE NEW YORK LEDGER,
To be issued
THIS SATURDAY MORNING.
To be issued
With and contains
More of Cobb's Great Tale,
The Mystic Bride,
FANNY FERN'S SKETCHES.
etc., etc.

FOR SALE AT ALL THE NEWS OFFICES.
GO AND GET IT.

FANNY FERN WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000, ton of the NEW YORK LEDGER, will soon turn the 200,000 corner. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

SYLVANUS COBB, JR., WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

THE HEBREW'S CURSE, MISS GIBSON'S NEW STORY, is to-day commenced in THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

MRS. SIGOURNEY WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000, ton of the NEW YORK LEDGER, will soon turn the 200,000 corner. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

THE MYSTIC BRIDE, THE GREAT LOCAL TALE by Cobb, is being published in THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

110 MILES OF NEWSPAPER—One edition of the NEW YORK LEDGER, if laid down with the paper end to end, would extend over ONE HUNDRED AND TEN MILES. This may be considered as a pretty long stretch of newspaper, but an edition of the LEDGER will yet be sufficient to reach, in a continuous line, from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

A LICE CARY WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000 CIRCULATION. To some folks seems a mystification; but it just as plain as multiplication—the paper is one of great fascination.

THE MYSTIC BRIDE
Now has the enormous circulation of

163,000 COPIES WEEKLY.

No wonder it has such a circulation. Just look at a list of some of its circulation.

Mrs. Gibson
Alice Cary,
Fanny Fern,
Edwin Booth,
Sylvanus Cobb, Jr.,
The New York Ledger,
is sold with the most attractive manner which it is possible to obtain.

Scribbles. Novelties. Anecdotes. Poetry.

Every conceivable attraction which can be presented in a given week to work, in ever changing and exciting variety. What wonder, then, that the circulation of the LEDGER is 163,000.

The price of THE NEW YORK LEDGER is only four cents. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

FANNY FERN WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000, ton of the NEW YORK LEDGER, will soon turn the 200,000 corner. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

SYLVANUS COBB, JR., WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

THE HEBREW'S CURSE, MISS GIBSON'S NEW STORY, is to-day commenced in THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

MRS. SIGOURNEY WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000, ton of the NEW YORK LEDGER, will soon turn the 200,000 corner. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

THE MYSTIC BRIDE, THE GREAT LOCAL TALE by Cobb, is being published in THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

110 MILES OF NEWSPAPER—One edition of the NEW YORK LEDGER, if laid down with the paper end to end, would extend over ONE HUNDRED AND TEN MILES. This may be considered as a pretty long stretch of newspaper, but an edition of the LEDGER will yet be sufficient to reach, in a continuous line, from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

A LICE CARY WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000 CIRCULATION. To some folks seems a mystification; but it just as plain as multiplication—the paper is one of great fascination.

THE MYSTIC BRIDE
Now has the enormous circulation of

163,000 COPIES WEEKLY.

No wonder it has such a circulation. Just look at a list of some of its circulation.

Mrs. Gibson
Alice Cary,
Fanny Fern,
Edwin Booth,
Sylvanus Cobb, Jr.,
The New York Ledger,
is sold with the most attractive manner which it is possible to obtain.

Scribbles. Novelties. Anecdotes. Poetry.

Every conceivable attraction which can be presented in a given week to work, in ever changing and exciting variety. What wonder, then, that the circulation of the LEDGER is 163,000.

The price of THE NEW YORK LEDGER is only four cents. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

FANNY FERN WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000, ton of the NEW YORK LEDGER, will soon turn the 200,000 corner. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

SYLVANUS COBB, JR., WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

THE HEBREW'S CURSE, MISS GIBSON'S NEW STORY, is to-day commenced in THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

MRS. SIGOURNEY WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000, ton of the NEW YORK LEDGER, will soon turn the 200,000 corner. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

THE MYSTIC BRIDE, THE GREAT LOCAL TALE by Cobb, is being published in THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

110 MILES OF NEWSPAPER—One edition of the NEW YORK LEDGER, if laid down with the paper end to end, would extend over ONE HUNDRED AND TEN MILES. This may be considered as a pretty long stretch of newspaper, but an edition of the LEDGER will yet be sufficient to reach, in a continuous line, from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

A LICE CARY WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000 CIRCULATION. To some folks seems a mystification; but it just as plain as multiplication—the paper is one of great fascination.

THE MYSTIC BRIDE
Now has the enormous circulation of

163,000 COPIES WEEKLY.

No wonder it has such a circulation. Just look at a list of some of its circulation.

Mrs. Gibson
Alice Cary,
Fanny Fern,
Edwin Booth,
Sylvanus Cobb, Jr.,
The New York Ledger,
is sold with the most attractive manner which it is possible to obtain.

Scribbles. Novelties. Anecdotes. Poetry.

Every conceivable attraction which can be presented in a given week to work, in ever changing and exciting variety. What wonder, then, that the circulation of the LEDGER is 163,000.

The price of THE NEW YORK LEDGER is only four cents. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

FANNY FERN WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000, ton of the NEW YORK LEDGER, will soon turn the 200,000 corner. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

SYLVANUS COBB, JR., WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

THE HEBREW'S CURSE, MISS GIBSON'S NEW STORY, is to-day commenced in THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

MRS. SIGOURNEY WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000, ton of the NEW YORK LEDGER, will soon turn the 200,000 corner. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

THE MYSTIC BRIDE, THE GREAT LOCAL TALE by Cobb, is being published in THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

110 MILES OF NEWSPAPER—One edition of the NEW YORK LEDGER, if laid down with the paper end to end, would extend over ONE HUNDRED AND TEN MILES. This may be considered as a pretty long stretch of newspaper, but an edition of the LEDGER will yet be sufficient to reach, in a continuous line, from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

A LICE CARY WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000 CIRCULATION. To some folks seems a mystification; but it just as plain as multiplication—the paper is one of great fascination.

THE MYSTIC BRIDE
Now has the enormous circulation of

163,000 COPIES WEEKLY.

No wonder it has such a circulation. Just look at a list of some of its circulation.

Mrs. Gibson
Alice Cary,
Fanny Fern,
Edwin Booth,
Sylvanus Cobb, Jr.,
The New York Ledger,
is sold with the most attractive manner which it is possible to obtain.

Scribbles. Novelties. Anecdotes. Poetry.

Every conceivable attraction which can be presented in a given week to work, in ever changing and exciting variety. What wonder, then, that the circulation of the LEDGER is 163,000.

The price of THE NEW YORK LEDGER is only four cents. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

FANNY FERN WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000, ton of the NEW YORK LEDGER, will soon turn the 200,000 corner. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

SYLVANUS COBB, JR., WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

THE HEBREW'S CURSE, MISS GIBSON'S NEW STORY, is to-day commenced in THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

MRS. SIGOURNEY WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000, ton of the NEW YORK LEDGER, will soon turn the 200,000 corner. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

THE MYSTIC BRIDE, THE GREAT LOCAL TALE by Cobb, is being published in THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

110 MILES OF NEWSPAPER—One edition of the NEW YORK LEDGER, if laid down with the paper end to end, would extend over ONE HUNDRED AND TEN MILES. This may be considered as a pretty long stretch of newspaper, but an edition of the LEDGER will yet be sufficient to reach, in a continuous line, from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

A LICE CARY WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000 CIRCULATION. To some folks seems a mystification; but it just as plain as multiplication—the paper is one of great fascination.

THE MYSTIC BRIDE
Now has the enormous circulation of

163,000 COPIES WEEKLY.

No wonder it has such a circulation. Just look at a list of some of its circulation.

Mrs. Gibson
Alice Cary,
Fanny Fern,
Edwin Booth,
Sylvanus Cobb, Jr.,
The New York Ledger,
is sold with the most attractive manner which it is possible to obtain.

Scribbles. Novelties. Anecdotes. Poetry.

Every conceivable attraction which can be presented in a given week to work, in ever changing and exciting variety. What wonder, then, that the circulation of the LEDGER is 163,000.

The price of THE NEW YORK LEDGER is only four cents. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

FANNY FERN WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000, ton of the NEW YORK LEDGER, will soon turn the 200,000 corner. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

SYLVANUS COBB, JR., WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

THE HEBREW'S CURSE, MISS GIBSON'S NEW STORY, is to-day commenced in THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

MRS. SIGOURNEY WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000, ton of the NEW YORK LEDGER, will soon turn the 200,000 corner. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

THE MYSTIC BRIDE, THE GREAT LOCAL TALE by Cobb, is being published in THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

110 MILES OF NEWSPAPER—One edition of the NEW YORK LEDGER, if laid down with the paper end to end, would extend over ONE HUNDRED AND TEN MILES. This may be considered as a pretty long stretch of newspaper, but an edition of the LEDGER will yet be sufficient to reach, in a continuous line, from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

A LICE CARY WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000 CIRCULATION. To some folks seems a mystification; but it just as plain as multiplication—the paper is one of great fascination.

THE MYSTIC BRIDE
Now has the enormous circulation of

163,000 COPIES WEEKLY.

No wonder it has such a circulation. Just look at a list of some of its circulation.

Mrs. Gibson
Alice Cary,
Fanny Fern,
Edwin Booth,
Sylvanus Cobb, Jr.,
The New York Ledger,
is sold with the most attractive manner which it is possible to obtain.

Scribbles. Novelties. Anecdotes. Poetry.

Every conceivable attraction which can be presented in a given week to work, in ever changing and exciting variety. What wonder, then, that the circulation of the LEDGER is 163,000.

The price of THE NEW YORK LEDGER is only four cents. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

FANNY FERN WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

163,000, ton of the NEW YORK LEDGER, will soon turn the 200,000 corner. It is emphatically THE PAPER.

SYLVANUS COBB, JR., WRITES FOR THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

THE HEBREW'S CURSE, MISS GIBSON'S NEW STORY, is to-day commenced in THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

<